

This sound I ride – Audio Trailer Transcript

Podcast Jingle

Hello and welcome to „This sound I ride“, an adventurous and inspiring global journey for music lovers.

My name is Martin Bleicher, I am a music lover, DJ and concert promoter from Austria and If you are in search of new music, I ´d love to invite you to check out my podcast.

My show is about diverse, extraordinary, global music that inspires the listeners imagination like a surreal train ride through foreign countries or a trip to an exotic culture which offers an unfamiliar or unforeseeable perspective.

My curious and adventurous approach melts together different influences and musical languages and creates something exciting and unsettling at the same time.

The monthly show drops every third Sunday and is available on the usual podcast platforms like Apple Music, Spotify or directly on our website. So make sure you subscribe, so that you don´t miss a future episode.

I´m digging deep to find fascinating and boundary-free music and sounds and combine them for you, the listeners of this podcast. So stay curious, dive in and enjoy the dwell.

Thanks for your interest and i hope you enjoy the show.
